Lots of new jobs in Québec!

This article was published on www.quebeclabourlawblog.com on July 15, 2010 by Gabriel Granatstein, a labour and employment lawyer at Ogilvy Renault LLP.

According to this Digital Journal article, the majority of new jobs in Canada were created in Québec and Ontario:

Looking across the country those job gains have been very limited. Two provinces have the jobs (Quebec: +30,000 and Ontario: +60,000) while the rest of the nation is standing basically still or actually declining (Newfoundland and Labrador and New Brunswick)

Great news for La Belle Province....
